[Announcer]: With 1.3 billion people, China is the world's largest marketplace. A new trade agreement opens China's markets to our goods and services, their culture to our democratic values and it forces China to play by the rules. But isolationists want to slam the door on China, abandoning it to foreign competitors. Now Congress must choose isolation or engagement.

Tell Congress. Vote "Yes" on trade with China.